BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Please briefly present the partner organisation.

Founded in October 2024 in Cabo Verde, SDH is part of the CUFA Global network, present in over 60 countries worldwide. This network fosters cultural activities focusing on sports, education, citizenship, and arts, utilizing the Hip-Hop culture as a tool to promote integration and social inclusion for marginalized communities.

CUFA, originally founded by Celso Athayde, an influential social entrepreneur and volunteer, has been recognized globally, earning the World Economic Forum's 2022 Impact and Innovation Entrepreneur Award in Davos, Switzerland, presented by the Schwab Foundation.

Supported by Favela Holding, a conglomerate comprising over 20 companies dedicated to the socio-economic development of favelas, CUFA has made significant strides in promoting entrepreneurship and inclusion. Notably, Favela Holding earned the Caboré 2022 Award for marketing services.

CUFA's international presence includes offices in all Brazilian states, the Federal District, and countries such as the United States, where the organization established its Global Headquarters in the Bronx, New York in 2015, following its Global Week at the United Nations. The UN granted CUFA three key advocacy seats focusing on Housing, Afro-Descendants, and Youth.

Additionally, CUFA has played a pivotal role in initiatives such as Mastercard's Strive Project, which digitizes micro-enterprises in vulnerable communities, and the Women of Favela Social Innovation Labs in partnership with Caixa Econômica Federal and Impact Hub.

Through these efforts, SDH – Cabo Verde aims to empower marginalized communities, promote social integration, and inspire systemic change.

What are the activities and experience of the organisation in the areas relevant for this application?

SDH, as part of the CUFA Global network, leverages extensive experience in fostering social inclusion and empowerment through a variety of impactful activities. The organization draws from CUFA's long-standing expertise in sports, education, citizenship, and arts, with a strong foundation rooted in Hip-Hop culture to inspire change in underserved communities.
